

Indiana has a privacy protection law to save its citizens from unwanted telemarketers. WE like that law. It is a blessing not to have tele-trespassers in our homes during the day and evening.

Please do not pass a law that would allow BIG BROTHER to take away our state's rights. Surely that is not what was meant to happen by our founding father.